Modern Caribbean Living

Villa 52 has been designed with space, functionality and indoor-outdoor living in mind. With 229 m² of construction, the property offers plenty of room for comfortable everyday living while maintaining a modern and practical layout. The private swimming pool creates a perfect outdoor space for relaxing, entertaining guests and enjoying the warm Caribbean climate. As a brand-new property, the villa also gives the new owner the opportunity to furnish and personalize the home according to their own taste.

Located in Campo del Mar IV, Sosúa Ocean Village

Campo del Mar IV is a residential section within Sosúa Ocean Village, one of the most established gated communities on the Dominican Republic's North Coast. The location provides convenient access to Sosúa's beaches, restaurants, supermarkets, shops and everyday services, while the neighboring town of Cabarete is also within easy reach. For a wider look at the area, see our complete guide to buying property in Sosúa and our Sosúa real estate guide.

An Attractive New-Build Opportunity

At US$395,000, Villa 52 offers buyers the opportunity to own a substantial new-build property with a private pool and a generous lot in Sosúa Ocean Village. Whether you are looking for a new home in the Dominican Republic, a Caribbean vacation residence, or a property with potential for rental income, this villa offers flexibility and long-term potential.
